Newsletter No.113

May 2012

Last month's coffee morning raised £124.61.

It looks like May will be a busy month. It is Bank Holiday Monday on May 7th. and on May 19th. the Olympic Torch relay will be passing through Cornwall. The torch will pass through the village of St.Stephen where special events are being organised. There are several other events being held locally but we hope to see as many people as possible at our chapel where we will be serving cream teas, which is part of the Great Cream Tea Challenge.

This special challenge has been given to churches of Cornwall that on May 19th. we should serve (and record) more cream teas than have ever been served before in one day and that this accomplishment should be recorded in the Guinness Book of Records.

This will be a social event, a time for a chat and a way of showing God's love to everyone.

Our cream tea event will be held in our chapel from 4:00pm on May 19th.

At the following Sunday service a symbolic Olympic candle will be lit.

We are all very pleased that Owen is back amongst us after having his hip operation.

Our thoughts and prayers are with those who are unwell or have lost loved ones.

On May 6th.the Easter Offering Circuit Service will be held at Bethel at 6:00pm.
