Newsletter No.165

September 2016

The August coffee morning held Saturday 6th. raised £160. Thanks once again for your support.

The same afternoon friends of the chapel met for tea at Shirley and Owen's. This was to say goodbye to Rev.Sheila who was given a cheque, a "Cornish" tea towel and cards as parting gifts.

On Sunday August 7th. there was a United Service led by Rev. Sheila at Whitemoor and then in the evening some of our members attended Rev. Sheila's farewell service at Carclaze.

Our new minister Rev. Stephen Caddick will be preaching at our chapel for a United Service on Sunday September 11th.

Harvest Festival celebrations will be on Sunday September 25th. when the preacher will be Mrs. J.Garbett. The usual Harvest Supper and auction will be held on Monday September 26th. at 6:15pm. Don't forget to bring your cutlery and dish for afters.

The funeral service was held recently in our chapel for Mrs. P. Hancock. She lived with her family for many years at Halviggan and Old Pound before moving to a farm at Luxulyan.

On Friday August 19th. Mr.J.Keast conducted the funeral service in our chapel for Mrs. Olive Harris. She had lived in Nanpean most of her life but sadly passed away whilst away on holiday.

They will be sadly missed and our thoughts and prayers are with their families.
