

Nanpean Methodist Church

Newsletter No.178

October 2017

The proceeds from the September coffee morning amounted to £144.80. Thank you for your support.

Our chapel was decorated as usual for our Harvest Celebrations. Rev. Stephen Caddick led the morning service on Sunday 24th. September, which we were pleased to share with friends from Whitemoor and Roche chapels and also St.George's Church, Nanpean.

Our Harvest Supper took place on Monday 25th.September when 49 meals were served. Rev. Stephen and his wife Sharon came and also Rev. Paul Parker, the new minister to the circuit. After the supper Dennis auctioned the produce. Gifts of fruit and flowers were distributed to the sick and elderly. The proceeds for Harvest were as follows :-

Harvest Festival collection - £175.80
Harvest donation - £25
Harvest Supper - £249.50
Sale of produce - £150.20
Making a total of £600.50.

On Sunday October 1st. some members of our chapel attended St.George's Church for their Harvest Festival and also joined them for their Harvest Supper on Monday October 2nd. in our chapel.

On Friday October 27th. Whitemoor Chapel are holding a Cornish Evening with tea at 6:00pm followed by a concert at 7:30pm.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the sick, elderly and recently bereaved.

It's time for Samaritan's Purse Operation Christmas Child shoebox appeal. We have the shoe boxes at our chapel if you wish to have one to fill. They have to be ready by the end of October.
